

THE UWCSEA FUND 2018/2019

Every gift tells a story

Stories made possible through your generosity

SCHOLARSHIPS 'A story of promise and potential'

UWCSEA brings together a diverse group of young people to become future community leaders and find solutions to some of the world's most intractable problems.

"I'm proud to have been a UWCSEA scholar, and gained strength learning from others who were so different to myself—and yet at the same time so similar. It's the UWC paradox: that celebrating diversity unifies us!

I hope the generosity of donors continues to enable more kids like me to be able to join the UWC movement where they will be filled with the values and energy of positive change."

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT 'A tale of environmental stewardship'

A UWCSEA education ignites the passion in students to address peace and social justice issues whilst respecting the planet's ecological boundaries.

"As a UWCSEA student, I passionately endorse the school's mission with its significant focus on renewable energy as a way for us to foster a more sustainable planet. Given the success of the Solar for Dover project in reducing the College's carbon footprint, it is imperative for us to expand it to the East Campus to light even more classrooms—and spark more imaginations!"

TEACHING AND LEARNING 'Inspiring stories of immersive learning'

UWCSEA delivers a holistic, values-based education that develops young people as individuals and as members of a global society.

"The session with Mr Chin in the 'Workshops with the Composer' series was very interactive and inspiring. I thoroughly enjoyed his positive method of teaching and how he brought all the string instruments together, to a new level. It was really fun and inspiring and I hope we can have more sessions like this."

ENDOWMENT 'The story of a long journey'

Endowment funds provide the College freedom to seize opportunities as they emerge, strengthening the legacy of the College and supporting its continued growth and development.

"I have always admired the energy and passion of the students at UWCSEA—particularly the scholars who are bootstrapping themselves from difficult circumstances. I certainly thought a lot about their challenges when I was feeling a little sorry for myself climbing a long hill or battling a tough headwind. The contributions raised by this ride, which I am matching, will go a long way to help more scholars enjoy the benefit of a UWCSEA education. Thank you everyone for your generosity!"

“Write the story:
join us as a catalyst of CHANGE.”

“The transformative power of collective giving is all around us. One donor’s capacity may, numerically, look very different from another’s, but the generosity of the UWCSEA community has ensured we remain not just a superb international school, but, more importantly a great UWC.”

Chris Edwards, Head of College

The extraordinary story of collective giving

The power of collective giving helps advance the UWC mission and enriches the transformational UWCSEA learning experience in the classroom and beyond. The Foundation works to combine generous donations of various amounts together for maximum impact.

Stories being written include:

Scholarships

Generous donations from our community, both large and small, are brought together to help fund a UWC education for students of great promise and potential.

Teaching and Learning

Combined gifts help us build programmes and activities such as the IDEAS Hub, which inspires our community to explore, innovate, collaborate and create sustainable solutions to shape a better world.

Sustainable Development

Future donations will help ensure a lasting environmental legacy by expanding our Adopt a Tree and solar installation programmes, making our campuses greener and reducing our carbon footprint.

Endowment

Gifts from our community can be pooled together in endowment funds delivering long-term impact by growing our scholar community, elevating our teaching and learning programmes and enhancing future sustainability initiatives.

Foundation Parent Ambassadors

"Being a Foundation Parent Ambassador gives you the chance to get actively involved in achieving the College's ambitious mission through advocacy and support. Parent involvement is such a vital and differentiating part of life at UWCSEA, and joining the Parent Ambassador team is a wonderful way to help raise awareness of the positive impact of giving to the College.

We are so grateful to those who donate through their time, energy or making a gift—so please get in touch and get involved!"
